

Constitutional Act of Denmark

of June 5, 1953

(excerpt)

(...)

PART VIII

§ 71

(1) Personal liberty shall be inviolable. No Danish subject shall, in any manner whatsoever, be deprived of his liberty because of his political or religious convictions or because of his descent.

(...)